

2014 color palette

Fresh, elegant and refined.

They are the new colors for spring, that change the color chart 2013.

Trieste, February 14, 2014 - Available online on ColorLab the colors of the new collections that will change CalleaDesign color chart for the 2014.

The big news is the inclusion of three gradations composed of 4 color tones.

The first gradation, the most classic, reminiscent of the tone color of the interior textile and is made from flax, sand, dove grey and caffelatte. The second, has the warmth of a hug and a high sense of matter. It is composed of sand-colored pink, light peach, tan and terracotta. Finally, the most delicate and elegant with tones ranging from seashell pink to antique pink and from cloud pink to plum grey.
